Happy Jack Was Pretty Bad in 1903, But His Art Returned the Following Year.

THIS IS HIS YEAR TO PITCH

His Record of Sixteen Straight Wins Is the Best of Any Pitcher in the World.

NEW YORK, January 13 .- There are a great many baseball critics who cannot understand why Clarke Griffith does not sell or exchange Jack Chesbro because he falled to make good last season.

manager shows poor judgment in sticking to the big follow, and say that his day of usefulness is past, but they forget that when the star pitcher was secured from Pittsburg in 1903 he failed to make good, and was then also declared to be a lemon that had been sucked dry.

This dope was all upset in 1904, when showed as a member of the Pirates, but improved on it and made a record in the improved on it and made a record in the box that no other pitcher in the world approached, not even the great Mathewson. The Yankee twirler's record of sixteen consecutive victories made that year has never been touched, and there does not seem to be anybody in the field just now capable of breaking it.

If Griff had Hstened to the hundreds of people who thought they knew more than he, he would have let the spitball artist go after his poor season in 1903, and then would have had the pleasure of seeing Chesbro making his great record as a member of some other team, but Griff is wise beyond his years—many though they be—and does not jump at conclusions. So the big twirler was signed for another year, just as he will be this year, if he is willing, and he has already expressed his desire to be with already expressed his desire to be with the Yanks this spring. He writes that he is in the best of health, and is confihe is in the best of health, and is confi-dent that he will be able to show them all this summer.

Chesbro is one of the hardest working and most conscientious players in the game, and even though he was in poor shape last season, never for a minute stopped trying to get around to form, al-though if he had gone to Griff and told stopped trying to get around to form, although if he had gone to Griff and told him that he needed a rest the manager would have given him hil the time off he wanted. But Chesbro not only tried to do his regular share of the work, but offered to go into the box any time that the team was hard up for pitchers, even though it did jeopardize his chances of being able to pitch another year.

Of course, there has never been a ball being able to pitch another year.

Of course, there has never been a ball player in the history of the game who was not in grand condition during the period when he expects the contracts to be sent out, but in Chesbro's case it is different, as he has been bad and has come back the following year and shown wonderful form, and it is to be hoped that he will do the same thing this year. LEXINGTON, KY., January 13.—Lillian Russell, the actress, paid a visit to the Hamburg stud of J. E. Madden yesterday, and while there expressed her intention of getting together a stable of thoroughbreds to race this season. She made Madden an offer of $5,000 for the two-year-old bay colt by the sire of Sysonby, the English Derby winner, Melton, out of Cyna, by Bona Vista. So good does Madden consider this near relative of Sysonby's that he refused the offer and will race the colt in his own colors the coming season.

won all the games in which he appeared. This achievement, however, is not so creditable as it sounds for the reason that he appeared in only two games. Next to LaRoy in games

White, of Chicago, was third, with eighteen games won, six lost and one

SPORTING NOTES

Manager McCarey, of the Pacific Athletic Club, has offered to arrange a fight between Bill Squires and O'Brien, since the mill between Squires and Jeffries has been called off.

George H. Sutton, the handless bil-liard wonder, who has been playing exhibition games in Brooklyn, will meet Thomas Gallagher Monday afternoon in a 2,300 point contest at Maurice Daly's billiard academy. The men will play a block of 300 points, both afternoon and evening, at the 18.2 balkline style, The winner will receive a handsome trophy.

Johnny Carroll is out with a challenge to meet Honey Mellody. Joe Faivey has gathered up a few loose dollars, and is willing to back his grotege to meet Mellody for the welterweight championship. Carroll is a first-class boxer and hard hitter, and in only a few mentins gained a big reputation by knocking out Sallor Burke in one round, among his other achievements.

bargaining a match has finally been arranged for Joe Cox, the New Zealand fighter, who has been called a second Fitzsimmons, as far as his physical appearance is concerned. He will fight George Brown, who has won a decision over Al Neil and a draw with Joe Thomas, for ten rounds, and will probably weigh in at about 155 pounds.

McGraw is in Los Angeles arranging details for the spring training of the Giants, who will get into condition in the picturesque California city. Willie Fitzgerald will fight Jack Dougherty in Denver on February 9th. The men are slated to go twenty rounds, and the Harp is sure of stopping the Milwaukee boy before the limit.

According to a dispatch from London, the Aero Club, of Great Britain, at a meeting heid on Monday evening, decided to send a challenge for the Bennett Balloon Cup, which will be competed for in St. Louis next October. A complete team of three balloons will be sent.
